

ORPHAN FOUNDATION OF AMERICA'S

Red Scarf Project

Do you love to knit or crochet? Whether you are a beginner, an expert, or somewhere in between, your handiwork can send warmth and encouragement to America's college-bound foster youth!

The Orphan Foundation of America needs thousands of handmade scarves to go in its Valentine's Day Care Packages. Here is a unique opportunity for you to contribute a truly personal touch to these packages, bringing students the support they need to move forward and graduate to a brighter future.

Your hands are a window into your heart and soul. With each project you make, there truly is a piece of you in it. They say there is love in every stitch and that a handmade scarf is like a hug from the giver.

Thus, I'm especially pleased that you've decided to get involved with the Orphan Foundation's Red Scarf Project. The orphans have known lots of adversity in their lives and it's the very least we can do to show that someone out there, even a stranger, truly cares."
